

STATE	COUNTY	CITY	YEAR	MONTH	DAY	ACTIVITY	COMMENTS	SCHORGER PAGES
SC	Aiken		1869	1		Migration	The last great flight of pigeons was seen in 1869, the largest flock seen since then was no more than 3,000 birds	1491
SC	Anderson	Anderson	1888	10	15		Hunter shot 2 out of flock of 12-15	962
SC	Anderson	Anderson	1889				small flock	962
SC	Anderson	Anderson	1888	11			two or three shot out of a flock of 12 to 15	1610
SC	Anderson	Anderson	1889	10			a small flock sighted	1611
SC	Beaufort		1901	3	18		flock flew overhead	964
SC	Charleston	Charleston	1885	11	21		1 bird shot by hunter	963
SC	Charleston	Charleston	1876-1877				Saw a small flock of about 40. Last I have ever seen or heard of.	1124
SC	Chester		1874	3	15		abundant	231
SC	Chester		1874	3	15	migration	very abundant	962
SC	Fairfield	Winnsboro	1943	3	15	migration	Hundreds of thousands passed over in their eastward flight	962
SC	Fairfield		1875			migration	hundreds of thousands flew over	1610
SC	Greenville	Caesar's Head	1882	7	15	nest	saw 2 pairs near summit of mountain	963
SC	Oconee		1865				3 to 4 miles of clouds of pigeons	962
SC	Oconee	Walhalla	1865			roost	clouds of pigeons	1610
SC	Richland	Columbia	1786	4		Nest	The phenomenon of feeding "pigeon milk" to nestlings	1397

SC	Williamsburg	Lane	1908				1 flew overhead	963
SC	Williamsburg		1895	10	15		shot and killed	965
SC	Williamsburg		1895	10	15		I shot probably the last specimen killed in...	1202
SC			1671	3	15		abundant	962
SC			1682					962
SC				1	15		incredible numbers	963
SC							irregular occurrence	963
SC							great numbers	964
SC							plenty	964
SC							visits state yearly in great numbers	964
SC				1			formerly abundant winter resident in the state	1610
SC			1904				last bird in state killed	1610
SC			1907				last bird sighting in state	1610
SC			1910				Species almost extinct due to being caught in enormous numbers in nets in addition to drowning in multitudes in the Gulf of Mexico	2185