

STATE	COUNTY	CITY	YEAR	MONTH	DAY	ACTIVITY	COMMENTS	SCHORGER PAGES
VT	Chittenden	Essex Junction					seen every season	975
VT	Chittenden	Milton				nest	Frequently seen small flocks of 3-12 every season. Half a dozen pairs reared young last season.	975
VT	Chittenden	Essex Junction				nest	A few seen every season. Nested in great numbers on mountain.	976
VT	Lamoille		1848	4	15	nest	Usually one or two eggs found in each nest. 44 dozen caught in one spring.	976
VT	Orange	Randolph					former abundance	976
VT	Rutland	Pawlet					formerly abundant	974
VT	Rutland	Hydeville		4	9	migration	pigeons migrating	2339
VT	Washington	Montpelier	1849	4	15	nest, roost	immense numbers, remained to breed.	99
VT	Washington	Fayston	1849	4	15	nest	reared their young in large numbers	99
VT	Washington	Warren	1849	4	15	nest	reared their young in large numbers; nests extended over a territory of at least 2000 acres	99
VT	Washington	Montpelier	1849	4	15	breed	immense numbers	975
VT	Washington		1849			nest	2000 acres of nesting	975
VT	Washington	Montpelier	1849	4	15	roost	An immense number of birds. Bred till summer.	1066
VT	Washington	Faysten	1849	5		nest		1713
VT	Washington	Warren	1849	5		nest		1713
VT	Washington	Montpelier	1849	4			immense numbers of pigeons	2539

VT	Windham	Rockingham					formerly immense numbers at harvest time	976
VT	Windham	Rockingham	1907				Some believe passenger pigeons have migrated to South America	2187
VT	Windsor	Chester					husband drove pigeons away with a pole	974
VT			1741			nest	nesting for 3 miles altogether	975
VT			1884				a remnant of the countless number only remain	976
VT			1741				nests thick on the trees - 5 thousand could be counted at one turn around	1709
VT			1846				The beech is more abundant than other tree	2110
VT			1850			Nest	Hawks ravaged pigeons continually	2178